UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW
Working Group on International Contract Practices
Twenty-second session
Vienna, 19 - 30 September 1994

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

1. Election of officers
2. Adoption of the agenda
3. Preparation of a draft Convention on independent guarantees and stand-by letters of credit
4. Other business
5. Adoption of the report

Notes on the provisional agenda

Pursuant to a decision taken by the Commission at its twenty-first session, [1] the Working Group on International Contract Practices devoted its twelfth session to a review of the draft Uniform Rules on Guarantees being prepared by the International Chamber of Commerce and to an examination of the desirability and feasibility of any future work relating to greater uniformity at the statutory law level in respect of guarantees and stand-by letters of credit. The Working Group recommended that work be initiated on the preparation of a uniform law, whether in the form of a model law or in the form of a convention.

That recommendation was accepted by the Commission at its twenty-second session. [2] The Working Group devoted its thirteenth to twenty-first sessions to the preparation of a uniform law (reports of those sessions are found in documents A/CN.9/330, 342, 345, 358, 361, 372, 374, 388 and 391). That work has been carried out on the basis of background working papers prepared by the Secretariat on possible issues to be included in the uniform law. Those background papers included: A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.63 (tentative considerations on the preparation of a uniform law); WP. 65 (substantive scope of application, party autonomy and its limits, rules of interpretation); WP.68 (amendment, transfer, expiry and obligations of the guarantor); WP.70 and WP.71 (fraud and other objections to payment, injunctions and other court measures, conflict of laws and jurisdiction). The draft articles of the uniform law, which the Working Group decided should as a working assumption be in the form of a draft Convention, were presented by the Secretariat in A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.67, WP.73 and its Add.1, WP.76 and its Add.1, and WP. 80. The Working Group also had presented to it, in A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.77, a proposal by the United States of America relating to rules for stand-by letters of credit. At its previous session, the twenty-first, the Working Group considered the version of draft articles 2(2) to 17(1) as contained in document A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.80. The Working Group requested the Secretariat to further revise the draft articles taking into account the most recent reading of the draft Convention. It also noted that the current reading begun by the Working Group (A/CN.9/WG.II/WP.80 and subsequent working papers) would be the final reading of the draft articles prior to submission of the text to the Commission at its twenty-eighth session (1995), as requested by the Commission.
